services, now with the political situation in the ~~most~~ ^{most} difficult considerably changed following the tri-party announcement, we have much less. I will himself has chosen to remain at my orders, and has sent me a sort of ultimatum, stating to give him a reply in one day or another.

I believe, however, that having proved that I am not a fascist, and since GLIM can also be useful to Italy, that such a small force I deserve.

I remain at your disposition, for everything and without limits, I remain

REMARKS: The material on MALEKO has been received and is in good order.

The July 1940 received at Via Frascati 60 a registered letter sent from London on 30 July, registration No. 1441, bearing postage 10 lire to Pandolfi - RICO addressee. Polluting is a transmission of this letter.

Yours and, 27 July 1940

I thank you for the information which you send us, this has overcome my anxiety.

I beg you now to obtain for me a confidit, even for a partial period, as technical counsellor to the Commercial Attaché, in order to take the big step. This would furnish greater security to my work.

The ship sails from Berlin on the 6th; it would be necessary that you send someone now.
